From The Stewards

Document Stewards Decision 225

To The Team Representative - Velocity Racing Development

Date May 26, 2021

Car No. 11 Driver – Hunter Yeany

Time 20:35

The Stewards, having received a report from the Race Director regarding an incident between FR Car Nos. 11 and 14 during Race 3, having examined video evidence, and having summoned and heard from driver Hunter Yeany and Team Representative Dan Mitchell, have considered the matter and determine the following:

No/Driver No. 11 Hunter Yeany

Competitor Velocity Racing Development

Time 11:23

Session Race 3

Facts On-board video from the No. 11 car shows the No. 11 making a passing attempt to the right of the No. 14 at the entry to Turn 12, losing control and having hard contact with the No. 14 past the apex. The No. 11 continued, while the No. 14 was disabled and did not continue. The No. 14 was returned to the paddock by wrecker.

Offence Breach of Article 15.1.d of the Sporting Regulations, read with the FIA International Sporting Code Appendix L Chapter IV (Code of Driving Conduct on Circuits) Article 2.d.

Decision The Stewards impose a 5 grid-position penalty on the driver of the No. 11 in his next race. In accordance with Sporting Regulations Article 17.4, the Stewards impose a penalty of 4 penalty points on the driver.

Reason The Stewards find the driver of the No. 11 car to be wholly responsible for the incident and contact at Turn 12. The Stewards also note that this incident was the 2nd incident of contact with another car that forced the retirement of the other car during this race.

The Competitor is reminded of his right to appeal in accordance with Article 16 of the Sporting Regulations except where the penalties are not susceptible to appeal.
